Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Art Unit: 1714

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 7, 9 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 7 depends from claim 1 and recites, "said providing step" but does not make clear which providing step is referenced.

Claims 9 and 17, at line 5, appear to be incomplete.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1, 2, 9, 12 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Tanaka et al.

Tanaka et al disclose reverse suspension polymerization processes suitable for condensation polymers.

Art Unit: 1714

The process limitations in applicants' composition claims are not given probative value. Applicants need to point to evidence of record demonstrating patentably distinct properties flowing from these limitations or supply such evidence in affidavit form.

Claims 12, 14-16 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Sikes et al '658.

Sikes et al disclose a variety of processes for the production of copolymers comprising aspartate and succinimide units. These polymers are taught as comprising a variety of comonomer ratios and as possessing colors such as claimed instantly.

The process limitations in applicants' composition claims are not given probative value. Applicants need to point to evidence of record demonstrating patentably distinct properties flowing from these limitations or supply such evidence in affidavit form.

Claims 12, 13, 17 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Zimmerman.

Zimmerman discloses polyamides produced from m xylene diamine and adipic acid. This polyamide is seen as meeting the limitations of the polyamides of the rejected claims.

The process limitations in applicants' composition claims are not given probative value. Applicants need to point to evidence of record demonstrating patentably distinct properties flowing from these limitations or supply such evidence in affidavit form.

Art Unit: 1714

Claims 3, 6, 8, 10 and 11 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
